June 17, 2008

Washington, D.C. – Upon learning today of the fact that it took the Department of Veterans Affairs' three

"I am appalled that the VA waited months to tell veterans using an experimental drug that potential side

"Coming on the heels of a cover up regarding the number of veteran suicides, and the suggestion from a

"The Veterans Affairs Committee, on which I sit, should begin an immediate investigation. I will talk with