October 30, 2007

Washington, D.C. – Congressman Jerry McNerney (CA-11) today backed the House's efforts to extend

H.R. 3678, Internet Tax Moratorium Extension, identical to a version passed by the Senate last week, pa

"The Internet is a driving force in today's economy and hundreds of millions of people have come to rely

The moratorium prohibits states and local governments from imposing taxes on most forms of Internet a

The House originally passed a different version of this bill that would have extended the moratorium for f