Washington, D.C. – Today, Congressman Jerry McNerney (CA-11) announced he will hold a Congress at Your Corner to meet one-on-one with his constituents on Monday, September 21, from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the Margaret K. Troke Branch Library in Stockton.

"Instead of asking community members to come to one of my offices, I am going to go to them to make it as easy as possible for them to meet their Member of Congress," Rep. McNerney said. "I am committed to meeting with residents throughout the district so that I can effectively serve them and address their needs."

Congress at Your Corner is part of an effort to reach out to residents of California's 11th District and is designed to allow constituents to meet and discuss issues individually with Rep. McNerney in the places where they already shop and recreate. This Monday's event will mark the 55th Congress at Your Corner hosted by the Congressman.

Rep. McNerney will continue to schedule public appearances as a part of the Congress at Your Corner program at community hot spots like grocery stores, shopping centers and libraries. Rep. McNerney and his staff will be on hand to speak individually with attendees, listen to their opinions, and aid them in finding solutions to difficulties they may encounter in dealing with federal agencies.

Upcoming Congress at Your Corner time and location:
