The Sikh community has always exemplified the American commitment to peace, civility and respect. In the wake of the senseless acts of violence earlier this summer in Wisconsin, the Sikh community continues to show strength, integrity and honor. I want to recognize your resilience in the face of adversity. Together we stand shoulder-to-shoulder against any acts committed because of hate speech, hate music, and discrimination. We will strive to continue to build understanding and eliminate intolerance.