February 12, 2009

Washington, DC – Late last week, the Amador Valley High and Foothill High students achieved first and

“I’d like to congratulate the students of the Amador Valley High and Foothill High School civics teams for

“This is the eighth time that Amador Valley High has won the California state championship. California w

“We can be proud that these students represent our region. Their achievement shows their knowledge,