

N.J. investigation finds inaccurate equipment and octane ratings, pricing discrepancies

June 24, 2008

Washington, D.C. – Congressman Jerry McNerney (CA-11) sent a letter today to California Attorney General

An investigation in New Jersey, announced last week by the Attorney General's office in that state, found

The text of the letter appears below.

June 24, 2008

Edmund G. Brown Jr.
Attorney General
Office of the Attorney General
P.O. Box 944255
Sacramento, CA 94244-2550

Dear Attorney General Brown:

With gas prices well over $4 a gallon statewide, my constituents are feeling the squeeze at the pump. F

Last week, the Attorney General in New Jersey announced that after investigating 1,023 gas stations in

This means that in some cases, consumers were getting shortchanged based on the amount of gas for v

It is fundamentally important that gas pumps clearly and accurately identify what octane gas is being dis

I encourage you, as California's chief law officer, to initiate an immediate and aggressive investigation to

After all, consumers should have every confidence that they get what they pay for at the pump, especial

If I can be of any assistance in this regard, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Jerry McNerney
Member of Congress