

February 7, 2008

Washington, D.C. – Today, Congressman Jerry McNerney (CA-11) announced the availability of over $2

The nearly $3 million is included in the 2008 budget, which President Bush signed into law in late Decem

“I am proud to announce funding for all these infrastructure projects in San Joaquin County. It’s critically

$1,000,000 to reconstruct the French Camp/I-5 interchange and Sperry Rd. connection

Funds will be used to reconstruct the French Camp/I-5 Interchange and connect Sperry Road from Perf

$131,000 for the Urban Flood Protection Project in the San Joaquin River Basin

Funds will be used to test, conduct field borings in, survey, evaluate deficiencies in, and propose correct

$500,000 for the San Joaquin County Agricultural Service Center

Funds will be used to create a center to streamline agriculture services available in San Joaquin County

$750,000 for San Joaquin Region Transit District Regional Operations Facility

Funds will be used for the Regional Transit District facility and will include an operating garage, heavy m

$523,000 for Farmington Groundwater Recharge Project

Funds will be used for construction costs and necessary program infrastructure for the

Farmington Groundwater Recharge Project underway in Eastern San Joaquin County. The project is int

These projects come on top of the previous announcement of $3.4 million that Rep. McNerney, along w