

April 19, 2007

Washington, DC – Today, Congressman Jerry McNerney (CA-11) introduced a resolution congratulating

“It has been nearly a quarter century since Americans swept the Nobel Prize science awards,” said Rep

“As a mathematician and scientist myself before my election to Congress, I sincerely admire the achieve

The American Nobel Prize science award winners are:

Roger D. Kornberg, Stanford University, Chemistry;
Andrew Fire, Stanford University School of Medicine, Medicine;

Craig Mello, University of Massachusetts Medical School, Medicine;
John C. Mather, NASA Goddard Space Flight Center, Physics; and
George F. Smoot, University of California at Berkeley, Physics

The resolution, H. Res. 316, was introduced today, Thursday, April 19. The resolution is expected to be