

Amador, Calaveras County Supervisors to be among the speakers

January 27, 2009

Washington, D.C. – Today, Congressman Jerry McNerney announced that supervisors from Calaveras

Supervisor Gary Tofanelli, 1st district, and Supervisor Steve Wilensky, 2nd district, both members of the

The rally will be held this Friday, January 30, at 10:30 a.m. in the San Joaquin General Hospital parking

Confirmed attendees, listed alphabetically, include:

Joan Buchanan, Assemblymember, 15th Assembly District
Mike Dillman, Pastor, First Assembly of God Church, Manteca
Susan Eggman, Councilmember, Stockton
John Harris, Councilmember, Manteca
Alyson Huber, Assemblymember, 10th Assembly District
Ann Johnston, Mayor, Stockton
Diana Lowery, Councilmember, Stockton
Mike Maciel, Councilmember, Tracy
Debby Moorhead, Councilmember, Manteca
Dave Norris, Immediate Past President, California VFW
Robert Oliver, Councilmember, Lathrop
Brian Oneto, Amador County Board of Supervisors
Leroy Ornellas, Chairman, San Joaquin County Board of Supervisors
Dr. Raul Rodriguez, Superintendent/President, San Joaquin Delta College
Gary Tofanelli, Calaveras County Board of Supervisors
Evelyn Tolbert, Councilmember, Tracy
Ken Vogel, San Joaquin County Board of Supervisors
Steve Wilensky, Calaveras County Board of Supervisors
Doug Wilhoit, CEO, Greater Stockton Chamber of Commerce
Lois Wolk, State Senator, 5th Senate District

The rally is intended to demonstrate that there is support all across the region – including from veterans

Already home to a heavily-used VA outpatient clinic, French Camp is an ideal site for an expanded treat

Members of the public are encouraged to attend.