STOCKTON — Congressman Jerry McNerney, whose district includes Stockton and much of San Joaquin County, has openings for congressional interns in his Stockton office.

College and post-graduate students are preferred, but high school students will be considered on a case-by-case basis. The internships are unpaid but offer educational and professional experience, especially for those whose interest is in civics or public service.

In some cases, students can earn academic credit for their internships.

To apply, students should mail or fax a cover letter and résumé to the Stockton Office, Attn: Internship Coordinator, 2222 Grand Canal Blvd. No. 7, Stockton, CA 95207; the fax number is (209) 476-8587.

For more information, call (209) 476-8552.
