

Stockton Record

January 22, 2013

Stockton educator Denise Smart and her daughter, Lindsey, attended Monday's presidential inauguration after receiving tickets from Rep. Jerry McNerney, D-Stockton.

Denise Smart, an adjunct professor at Teachers College of San Joaquin, said they were "inspired by both the message and the experience. Great day!"

Added Lindsey Smart: "Our tickets were in front of the reflecting pool, and the view was amazing. The whole experience was one to remember."