

Office of Congressman Jerry McNerney

Thank you for contacting me, and for your interest in a career serving our great nation. One of the application requirements for all of the United States service academies (except for the United States Coast Guard Academy) is nomination by a government official. I am privileged to be able to nominate legal residents of California's 9th Congressional District to United States service academies. The military service academies (Army, Navy and Air Force) also accept nominations from other government officials. If you are interested in attending one of these academies, I urge you to apply for a nomination from me as well as the other nomination sources:

- Senators Dianne Feinstein and Kamala Harris
- The President, who nominates children of career military personnel, deceased or disabled veterans, military or civilian personnel in missing status, and Medal of Honor recipients;
- The Vice President, who nominates five individuals from across the United States per year;
- The Secretary of each military department – Army, Navy and Air Force – who nominates members of regular military, reserve components, and participants in the ROTC.

Information regarding application procedures for these nominations is available through each academy's website, listed below. Applying for a nomination from more than one elected or government official increases your chances of securing a nomination. More than one nomination, however, is neither required, nor of assistance, in gaining an appointment. Due to the number of applications received by my office, please notify me if you receive a nomination from another authority so that I may allow other candidates the opportunity for nomination.

Please note that the United States Merchant Marine Academy only accepts congressional nominations.

Candidates for a service academy nomination should recognize that each academy has specific deadlines that must be met if an application is to be successful. Academy websites provide information about deadlines and other application requirements.

A nomination is only one of the requirements for matriculation at one of our nation's service academies. You must also apply directly to each service academy individually. At the same time you contact my Stockton office, you should also request admissions information from each academy to which you plan to apply, by writing to them at the following addresses:

- An official copy of your SAT or ACT scores. These scores must be sent to my office by the College Board or ACT, Inc., respectively;
- At least two, but not more than three completed Candidate Evaluation forms. Letters of recommendation will not be accepted.

As your documentation reaches my Stockton office, it will be placed in a file my staff will create for you. When all necessary documentation is received, the file will be forwarded to my academy nomination advisory committee, which is comprised of retired military officers as well as local leaders in business and education. The advisory committee will carefully review your documentation and interview you. They will base their recommendations to the extent possible on criteria used by the academies in their final selection processes. My nominations will be based on my advisory committee's recommendations.

The deadline for submission of all required documentation is October 30, 2020. Postmarks will not be accepted. To be considered for nomination, you must medically, physically, and academically qualify for appointment by December 1st, 2020. Please contact Gary Prost in my Stockton office at (209) 476-8552 if you have any questions or if he can be of assistance in any way during this process.

As noted above, the Coast Guard Academy (USCGA) is the only United States service academy that does not require a nomination for appointment. For information about the USCGA, you may write to:

Service Academy Nomination Procedure and Basic Fact Sheet for 2019 Admission

An appointment to the U.S. Military Academy, U.S. Naval Academy, U.S. Air Force Academy, or U.S. Merchant Marine Academy is a distinct and rare honor. Acceptance of an academy appointment requires at least a nine-year service obligation, including four years at an academy and five years of active duty service.

Eligibility -- To be eligible for appointment, you must be an American citizen, at least 17 years old and not yet 23 years old on July 1, 2021 (25 years old for United States Merchant Marine Academy). Further, you must not be married or pregnant, and you must not have any legal obligation to support children or other dependents. To apply for a nomination to the three Department of Defense academies through my office, you must also be a legal resident of the 9th Congressional District of California. If you are not certain that your legal domicile is in the 9th Congressional District, call my office and request an address verification.

Nomination -- The nomination process is very competitive. I urge you to apply for a nomination from me as well as California's Senators Dianne Feinstein and Kamala Harris, who can also nominate qualified applicants to the four service academies. If you are interested in attending the U.S. Military Academy, U.S. Naval Academy, and U.S. Air Force Academy, you may also qualify for nomination through other sources, including:

- The President, who nominates children of career military personnel, deceased or disabled veterans, military or civilian personnel in missing status, and Medal of Honor recipients;
- The Vice President, who nominates five individuals from across the United States per year;
- The Secretary of each military department – Army, Navy and Air Force – who nominates members of regular military, reserve components, and participants in the ROTC.

Further information regarding application procedures for these nominations is available through each academy's website, listed below. Applying for more than one nomination increases your chances of securing a nomination. More than one nomination, however, is neither required nor of assistance in gaining an appointment. If another authority nominates you, please notify me so that I may allow other candidates the opportunity for nomination.

Evaluation Criteria -- The academies consider evidence of character, scholarship, leadership, physical aptitude, medical fitness, personal goals, and motivation in performing each nominee's "whole-person" evaluation. These are also the criteria my academy nomination advisory committee uses to determine nominations.

Character -- Absolutely critical in the course of evaluating a candidate is a positive determination of the candidate's character. Absence of good moral character is cause for disqualification. Candidates are considered to have good moral character unless evidence exists to suggest otherwise.

Scholarship -- Each element of a candidate's academic record is carefully evaluated by a service academy's admissions board. The elements evaluated include a complete high school record (and college record, when applicable), class standing, and either the SAT or ACT scores. All strengths and weaknesses in a candidate's academic background are taken into account.

Leadership -- Participation and achievement in organized athletics, student body and class government, clubs and class extracurricular activities, scouting, boys or girls state, church or other community-related activities demonstrate evidence of leadership potential. Candidates who have found it necessary to work to provide family support are considered to have demonstrated desirable leadership potential.

Physical Aptitude -- Measuring strength, endurance, agility, and coordination, the academies' fitness tests are designed to determine each candidate's readiness to undertake the rigorous athletic and physical education program at one of the academies. Each academy has its own test requirements. Results of the examination are evaluated, assigned a numerical score, and included in the whole-person evaluation by West Point. The Air Force, Naval, and Merchant Marine academies evaluate the results on a pass-or-fail basis.

Medical Fitness -- A candidate who meets minimum scholastic standards will be scheduled to take a service academy qualifying medical examination at a military or civilian contract facility near the candidate's home. Although medical qualification standards vary among the academies, only one exam is required. Different tests may be necessary, however, depending upon the academy. Scheduling and evaluation of the exam are arranged by the Department of Defense Medical Examination Review Board (DODMERB). Candidates who have questions about their medical exam results should direct them to:

DODMERB
8031 Edgerton Drive
Suite 132
USAF Academy, Colorado 80840-2200
(719) 472-3562

Medical scheduling and evaluation are time-consuming processes, especially if consultation, re-testing, or corrective action is required. The process may take from six weeks to four months.

Motivation -- Motivation is an intangible quality and difficult to evaluate; however, since it is most frequently the factor that determines an appointee's success or failure at a service academy, every effort is made to gauge a candidate's motivation. An attempt to measure motivation may be made through observation of the candidate's interest level in attending an academy and serving as an officer in the armed forces. Motivation may also be measured through an evaluation of correspondence, personal contacts, and care with which application materials are prepared.
